

Asylum Hill Public Safety Committee and Hartford Police Department are holding their Second Annual

Asylum Hill Community Day

Saturday
July 17, 2004

Sigourney Park

11am – 5pm

Come Celebrate the Asylum Hill Community!

*Any questions call the Asylum Hill Community Organizer
Karen Cato-Callaway 548-9105*

Who/What/Why?

The Asylum Hill Public Safety Committee is holding their Second Annual Community Day in conjunction with the Hartford Police Department to celebrate the Asylum Hill Neighborhood. Asylum Hill is one of Hartford's oldest neighborhoods and it has been struggling with extremely high crime rates. Community day is a celebration of the neighborhood.

When:

Saturday, July 17, 2004
11am – 5pm

Where:

Sigourney Park, Sigourney Street, Hartford, CT 06105
Directions: Corner of Sigourney Street and Ashley Street

Additional Information:

There will be Hot Dogs, Hamburgers, Chips, Beverages, Face Painting, Poetry, 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament (have teams together prior to July 17th), Double Dutch Competition (have teams together prior to July 17th), Horseshoes, Hartford Police Department Special Teams Tank, Health Screenings, Bookmobile, Voter Registration/Voter Information, Hartford Police Department Bomb Squad Robot, Prizes, London from Wicked Productions, The Power 104.1 Street Team and more...

Price: FREE